

COMMUNITY BASED SOLUTIONS
INDIGENOUS SOCIAL INNOVATION
EVERYONE WELCOME!

WEDNESDAY APRIL 21, 2021 | 5:45 PM - 7:00 PM
ZOOM PRESENTATION

Diane Roussin will be sharing on centering Indigenous wisdom as an approach to creating much needed systems change and solution building. Diane is a dedicated community leader and proud member of the Skownan First Nation. She has worked tirelessly for over two decades, primarily in Winnipeg's inner city, with organizations and projects that respect the ability and the right of Indigenous families, children and individuals to care for themselves and thrive. Diane is the Project Director for The Winnipeg Boldness Project, a research and development project focused on improving outcomes for children in Winnipeg's North End, through social innovation and social lab processes.

☆ Q & A session & Jubilee Fund's Annual General Meeting to follow. ☆

As the Zoom link will be shared by email, we require all attendees to RSVP by April 19th. Please RVSP on our website (www.jubileefund.ca) under the "Events" tab. Alternatively, you can RSVP by email to monica@jubileefund.ca or by calling (204) 589-5001.

Although this is a FREE event, donations are appreciated. Donations made to the Jubilee Fund are utilized to administer poverty reduction projects' flexible financing as well as our charitable ethical investment certificates which are pooled into a loan fund for the flexible financing.
